

December 1927

Monday 26

Baking a storm N.W. wind with snow all day, fell about 4 in of snow. Cleared up towards evening Duncan went up the hill at noon to Mukkelon was to leave today with hay for my goats

Tuesday 27

32 below this morning cold all day wind from North. Self went up the hill after dinner the roads are all covered in fact there is no trail, and very hard traveling

Wednesday 28

30 below this morning cold all day
Self at Mining Accounts Frank Cutting for snow. A little milder towards evening. I hear Pass & Strand got back from their trip North

Thursday 29

32 below this morning cold all day self went for a load of hay. Duncan brought down a little hay this evening, 30 below at 10 o'clock this evening

Friday 30

45 below this morning cold all day
Self at ad jobs the boys went for a load of feed. C Steam went across the River